Lingering Tuberculosis Produced by Steel Dust in Subway, Says Doctor.

The proposed subway ventilating scheme of G. G. Griest, as explained in yesterday's Tribune, has met with wide approval among the well known ventilating engineers of the city. C. E. Witherspoon, the heating and ventilating expert of Baker, Smith & Co., one of the ablest men in his line, said yesterday that the plan, as outlined by Mr. Griest, suld be most admirable. He even went a step further and proposed making ornaments of the ecessary ventilating shafts. He went on:

necessary ventilating shafts. He went on:

If Mr. Griest would carry his exhaust pipes out to the middle of the street, and there erect on islands of safety ornamental hollow posts about eight or ten feet in height, with openings on top covered with fancy gratings, he would beautify the streets, as well as do away with the impurities in the air below.

As a matter of fact, the same idea was carried out years ago in a much smaller way in City Hall Square. In this case it was also necessary to draw off the foul air from below the street level. An exhaust fan was placed at the bottom of the tube, and I thus drove out the had air through an ornamental post that is still standing.

And this is what Mr. Griest would do with his proposed plan, on a very much larger scale. His plan calls for an exhaust that would draw out the air at the rate of 300 feet a minute. I am of the opinion that were he to do away with the fans and rely solely in the currents to force out the foul air, with proper passages for the air to escape—say, with holes five feet in diameter and 100 feet apart—the velocity of the air forced by the movement of the trains would make a noticeable difference in the purity of the air.

Alfred R. Wolff, who has the reputation of being

Alfred R. Wolff, who has the reputation of being the best authority on ventilation in the United States, consulting expert for Columbia University and the expert who put in the present system of ventilation in the New-York Stock Exchange, was of the opinion that, as far as it went, Mr. Griest's proposition was just what was needed. He said:

Of course, the air must be carried somewhere, and any method of drawing it off and getting rid of it will be beneficial.

Mr. Griest's plan would be all right in the summer, and in the winter, if it should make the subway too cold, the question of heating the air and drying it would come up, and there you sumble upon a multitude of problems growing more and more intricate as you proceed.

I will say this, however, that, as far as he has gone with his proposed scheme, Mr. Griest is perfectly correct for this hot weather.

George S. Rice, acting chief engineer of the Subway Commission, was much interested in the Griest proposition. He said:

of course we are not ready to take up with any new and untried scheme, but we are investigating the entire matter and we shall finally make use of the one that seems to us best. The road has been in use since last October and up to this time we have found no trouble to speak of. This trouble is not one that is present over the whole line, and as fast as we are able we shall correct the evils as we find them.

This question of the exhaustion of air by means of fans and pumps is as old as the hills. It is in use in the Paris subway and in the Boston subway. In London in the tuppenny tubes the air is forced ahead of the car and fresh air follows in its wake, but the trouble there is that the tubes run into one another and thus the air is not forced out into the open. Exhaust fans are constantly used in mines and in all sorts of underground places, and in a va-riety of ways.

At the office of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company it was stated that Vice-President Bryan had entire charge of the subject of ventilation, but preferred not to give an opinion on the Griest proposition until he could acquaint himself further Tuberculosis, in the lingerling form known as "grinder's asthma," will be the result of continued breathing of the subway dust, according to a statement of one of the chief officials of the Health Department. He said yesterday:

Grinder's asthma results from the laceration of the air cells in the lungs by particles of steel and stone dust. It takes its name from the fact that the men who contract it are chiefly those who grind stones or metals for a living. No persons, re-gardless of constitution and general health, can es-cape it if continually exposed to the sharp cutting dust particles.

cape it if continually exposed to the dist particles.

In the subway the air is always filled with steel dust. It is caused by the friction between the brakes and the wheels, the wheels and the tracks and the shoes and the third rails. At present there is no way for this dust to be removed. It is constantly accumulating, and is a growing menace to the health of the hundreds of subway employes and thousands of patrons.

Several subway employes said yesterday that the subway dust is one of their most serious annoy-Health Commissioner Darlington said a with it. Health Commissioner Darlington said a few days ago that the steel dust in the tunnel was a germicide, and was of actual benefit to those inhaling it. The men say that the Interborough Rapid Transit Company are compelled to hire about fifty new men each week for the subway, owing to the number of regular employes who are taken sick or who are no longer able to endure bubway conditions.

Building Wreckers Fined-May Go to Jail If They Do Not Wet Rubbish.

Eighteen wreckers of buildings were fined from 6 to $15 in Special Sessions yesterday, for not thoroughly sprinkling the rubbish before removing through the streets. Justice McKeon, who presided, said the dust nuisance from this source d, said the dust number from the operations of dearnst that off-ending contractors will in danger of being sent to fall.

Indrew Neuberg, of No. 121 Rivington-st., and rnard Siegal, of No. 439 East 3d-st., were fined.

Most of the others paid $10 fines.

SHAVED ASTOR HOUSE MANAGER.

Hotel Earber's Service Was Free to Proprietor, Court Says-$126 36 Out.

Some time ago Justice Fallon in the Ninth District Municipal Court, instructed the jury to and judgment for $126.36 for Joseph Milandi, barber, against Alfred H. Thurston, manager of The Astor House. Yesterday the Appellate Term of the Supreme Court reversed the decision and granted a new trial, the opinion being that Mr. Milandi, who sued for a barber bill to the amount of judgment, had no knowledge of the number of times he shaved Thurston and no agreement with Thurston.

The defence was that the hetel managers are The defence was that the hotel managers are accustomed to be treated free by the barber of their establishment. Milandi was the proprietor of a barber shop in the Astor House for twenty-eight years. Mr. Thurston was a frequent visitor, but never considered himself a customer. Milandi entered suit declaring that he shaved Thurston nearly every day and trimmed his hair frequently. He was never paid, did not keep books, but figured that Thurston owed him for 1509 shaves. He sued Thurston for 570 shaves and 170 baircuts.

MRS. ABD-EL-NOUR WANTS REVOLVER.

She Says She Needs One to Prevent Husband From Kidnapping Her Boy.

Mrs. John Abd-el-Nour, who is suing her husband, a wealthy silk importer, yesterday applied to Mag-istrate Nathaniel Marsh, of the Second District Court, at Stapleton, for a permit to carry a re-volver. She said that since she left Staten Island she has been tormented by her husband and his friends, who threatened to do her bodily harm and kndnap her cight-year-old son. She said that while crossing from Manhattan to Jersey City the other day her husband tried to take the child from her, but did not succeed, on account of a crowd of men gathering. She said that since she has been

She told Magistrate Marsh that she wanted the pistol, so that if she was attacked by her husband she could scare him away.

The magistrate told her he believed she was of a too excitable nature, and refused to issue the permit.

Mrs. Abd-el-Nour was much disheartened over the refusal of the magistrate, and left the court-room in disgust.

LAST "FADS AND FRILLS" DISCUSSION. The last discussion of the revised course of study For the elementary schools was held yesterday, when the plans for revision passed from the Committee on Elementary Schools through the hands of e Board of Superintendents and the Committee on Studies and Text Books, which will present it to the Board of Education for ratification. No rep-resentatives from the North Side Board of Trade by other bodies appeared for a final argument. The North Side Board of Trade had especially requested a chance to present its side:

STORMY PEACE MEETING.

Employers Tell Electrical Workers' Union to Settle Internal Trouble.

The Electrical Workers' Union met yesterday to hear the New-York Electrical Contractors' Asso-ciation explain to the workmen its stand in the present difficulty. The meeting was held in Lyric Hall, and about a thousand men were present. The factions of the union are those headed by the president, John F. Hogan, and the former financial secretary, George B. Abbott. Each side accuses the other of "grafting" and false methods. At present legal proceedings are going on in the courts as to who are the proper officials of the union. John C. Hatzell, president of the contractors' as-sociation, explained to the men that the contractors did not want to become involved in the internal troubles, but wanted the men to come to some sort of agreement, whereby the contractors could de termine which was to be the Electrical Workers'

Cards were distributed at the door denouncing the contractors for "butting in.

James R. Strong, chairman of the executive com-nittee of the association, advised both factions to mittee of the association, advised both factions to appoint a committee in conjunction with a committee selected by the contractors, to select an umpire or an arbitration committee of three unprejudiced persons. Mr. Strong explained that the contractors would not recognize any of the officers of the union except those existing prior to the trouble. This met with hisses and jeers. If the contractors did not receive notice by July 1 of the intentions of the union, Mr. Strong hinted that a break between the men and their employers was liable to occur.

The men will meet to-morrow night at Germania Hall, in the Bowery.

Many of the men suggested that they throw the dissenting members out of the windows. Several of the opposing factions came near clashing.

MICKLER TRIED BY A STRUCK JURY.

Members of the Taxpayers' Association Not Allowed to Sit in Case.

The trial of Freeholder Mickler, for malfeasance in office, was begun yesterday in Paterson before a struck jury. Members of the Taxpayers' Asso-ciation, which has led in the campaign against official corruption, were challenged, and kept off the Harry Oliver, a contractor, was the chief wit ness for the State. He testified that Mickler had engaged him to repair a culvert. When he re-ceived his check for the work he found that it was for $57 more than he expected. Mickler, he said he learned, had raised the bill when it came before the Freeholders' committee. Oliver swore that when he spoke to Mickler about the check the latter he spoke to Mickler about the check the replied:

"Oh, that's all right. You know it costs a lot of money to be elected, and this is the only way I have of making it up."
Witness declared he kept the amount due him and left the balance with Mickler. The State expects to rest its case to-day.

EDGEMERE COTTAGE FIGHT IN COURTS

The Much Fought Case Will Be Tried Next Week Before a Jury.

An action involving the ownership of property valued at about $1,000,000 at Edgemere, Long Island, was begun yesterday in the Municipal Court at Jamaica, and had to be adjourned until a week from next Wednesday, the defendants to the notion demanding a trial by jury. The case is that of a dispossess proceeding brought by Fred C. Allen against Franklin C. Norton, the Clinton Park Camp Association, William S. Pettit, George Reinhart, Floyd White, George Kalzer, Joseph Ferraror and others to compel the removal of a small cot-tage from land under dispute at Edgemere, and about which there have been many legal and per-

At midnight Roundsman Shea arrested William Kelly near the Hudson River Railroad tracks, at Valentine Lane. The girl could not identify him.

FAILS TO PRESS CHARGE OF ASSAULT.

Mr. McAdoo Annoyed By Non-Appearance of Man Who Says Detective Beat him.

The failure of Thomas Dooling, driver of a newspaper wagon, to appear at Police Headquarters and press a complaint against Detective Cohen, of the Church-st. station, annoyed Commissioner Mc-Adoo yesterday. Dooling complained that Cohen assaulted him in the police station when he was being taken to a cell. Cohen and others, before being taken to a cell. Cohen and others, before the Commissioner yesterday, declared Dooling hit Cohen, and that Dooling threatened to use Tammany and newspaper influence to punish Cohen. Mr. McAdoo sent detectives to Dooling's house twice to invite Dooling to be a witness. Once the detectives were told by Mrs. Dooling that she would advise her husband to press the complaint, and yesterday they were told that Dooling was on his way to Folice Headquarters. Mr. McAdoo said he was inclined to make a charge against Cohen and have a subpears served on Dooling, to force his appearance. He said he had information that some drivers of newspaper wagons were too reckless.

CONFESSED TO STEALING BONDS.

T. G. Wylie Raised $11,000 on Those of Lawyers' Title Company.

Thomas G. Wylle, of No. 176 West 87th-et., was committed to the Elmira Reformatory yesterday by Justice McMahon, after pleading guilty to the theft of thirty-four $1,000 bonds from the Lawyers' Title Insurance and Trust Company, of No. 81 Liberty-Wylle was employed in the registry department of the company.

Wylfe raised $11,000 in cash on the bonds, which he soon lost in Wall Street speculation. A broker asked the trust company about the bonds, and the theft was learned. Wylie was arrested on May 24 and was kept in the Tombs for nearly two weeks before he was arraigned.

Louis Lowenstein. of Wentworth, Lowenstein & Stern, counsel for the prisoner, asked that Wylie's plea of larceny in the first degree be accepted, and dwelt on his youth and the fact that it was his first offence. The trust company got back all the stolen honds.

As to the stock tax, Mr. Randolph continues:

As to the stock tax, Mr. Randolph continues:

The death of old members, the dropping out of members subject to discipline and of such as had failed in business and the discouragements attending the enactment of the Stock Sales Tax law have all naturally tended somewhat to depress the current value of seats, the causes first named adding a considerable number of seats to those already offered for sale and unsold, and the last named, namely, the adoption by the New-York Legislature of the Tax law, introducing an additional discouraging element.

We are dealing with these facts thoughtfully and energetically. It may be necessary to test the validity of the stock sales tax or "stock transfer tax," as it is sometimes called. The exchange will do all that it reasonably can to assist and protect its members. It is believed that the members will stand together unitedly, and that by well considered measures the continued prosperity of the institution will be assured.

TO SELL NEW-ORLEANS R. R. COMPANY.

Ancillary Decree Granted in Case of New-York Security and Trust Company.

An ancillary decree of foreclosure and sale in the case of the New-York Security and Trust Company against the New-Orleans Railways Company was filed yesterday in the United States Circuit Court in this city. The original bill of foreclosure was granted by the Federal Court of New-Jersey, in Trenton. The plaintiff was the trustee of a $40,000,000 issue of bonds on the properties of the $40,000,000 issue of bonds on the properties of the defendant corporation, and on January 1, 1905, under the deed of trust, there became due bonds of the par value of $17.809,000 and interest amounting to $400,702. Payment upon these securities, the complaint charged, was wholly refused.

Judge Lacombe signed the ancillary bill of foreclosure, which was in all respects the same as that of the New-Jersey courts.

ERIE AND JERSEY R. R. CO. FORMED. Articles of incorporation of the Erie and Jersey Railroad Company, with a capitalization of $600,000. were filed yesterday at Albany, according to dispatches. Every Summery Sort Figures Prominently in the Series of Old Fashioned Sales at Macy's

It is not enough to depend wholly upon the work of other manufacturers of some lines—notably Waists and Undergarments. So we are manufacturers, taking unnecessary expense—middlemen's profits—out of the garments and building thorough excellence into them. When Macy Waists or Undermuslans are produced in other factories they are invariably made to our order, of such fabrics as we demand, fashioned after model garments supplied by us and made in quantities sufficiently great to insure typical Macy

This applies particularly to a collection of very high class nainsook and cambric Undergarments now on sale in the Underwear section of the second floor. These garments are patterned after imported models from our own superb stocks of French Lingerie-the entire work done in one of the best equipped underwear factories in New York.
